

AS you can buy it at a right price, why ignore the ads and buy it at a higher price?

LOCALS

Advertising in Brief

RATES.
Per line first insertion.....10c
Per line, additional insertions.....5c
Per line, per month.....$1.00
Count 6 ordinary words to line.
Locals will not be taken over the phone and remittance must accompany order.

Fish arrives daily. Oregon Market. Fresh milk cows for sale. Inquire Gritman Brothers.

Wanted—Good, clean rags at the East Oregonian office.

For rent—Furnished housekeeping rooms. Phone 253.

Joe Ell, insurance, room 3, American National Bank building.

For rent—House and furniture for sale. Close in. Phone 115.

Fresh smelt every day, 5 lbs. for 25c, at Oregon Market, Phone 444.

Wanted—Girl or woman for general housework on ranch. Phone 273.

For rent—5 room house with stone cellar, 1100 Riley street. Inquire Walters mill.

Phone 444 for U. S. inspected meat and more of it by paying cash, at the Oregon Market.

For sale—30 head of good horses and mules. For particulars, enquire M. L. Smith & Co. Phone 518.

For sale—30 head of good horses and mules. For particulars, enquire of E. L. Smith & Co. Phone 518.

Old papers for sale; tied in bundles. Good for starting fires, etc. 15c a bundle or two bundles for 25c. This office.

For sale—Two modern cottages located on east Court street, seven blocks from Main street. Inquire of Walters' mill.

For sale, reasonably, 1 Old Trusty and 1 McCallahan incubator, 120 eggs each. Inquire Geo. W. Hansen, Star and Bluff, or phone 3083.

Wanted—By man with family, who is a practical farmer, position as manager of grain farm. Address E. Reynolds, R. 6, Vancouver, Wash.

Penland Bros. new furniture warehouse storage; rates reasonable. Phone 339 or call Penland Bros., 641 Main street.

For sale—Good seven room house with stone foundation; plenty of room if person wants to raise chickens. An excellent opportunity to get a nice home at a bargain. For further particulars inquire at this office.

MORE ADVERTISING FOR THE ROUND-UP

According to the report of some of the boys returning from Portland, one of the finest displays of the big Round-up picture in the northeast is made at the Washington Street Cafe, 241 Washington street. Mr. Spranger, proprietor of the cafe, purchased one of the pictures last fall and has had a sixty-five dollar frame put on it, hung it in a good place and keeps four reflecting electric lights playing on it all the time. The picture shows up well and is attracting considerable attention.

L. M. Conry, traveling passenger agent of the Northern Pacific with headquarters at Spokane, writes that the big Round-up picture has been hung in the Spokane depot and is attracting "some considerable" attention.

John Spain and Blanche McLaughery, the principal actors in the Little Round-up Theatrical company, are going to do a three weeks' tour of the Sound country, playing at Seattle, Tacoma, Olympia, Bellingham, Everett and other points. They leave Portland this week.

Alta Theater.

Tonight is the last chance to view "Quo Vadis," that magnificent spectacular photo drama which has aroused such a world wide interest. It is without question the acme of the motion picture production. First run tonight starts at 7 p. m. Second run at 9:00 p. m.

Quo Vadis a Wonderful Picture.
Quo Vadis is a stupendous production, carried through with the consummate skill of the photographer in which no details of the story are lacking. A well pleased audience saw this picture at the Alta theater last night and will be given a last opportunity this afternoon and tonight to see this drama again. This eight part picture requires two hours to show. It is handled after the fashion of a legitimate dramatic company, being book-ended by one of the largest booking concerns in the east and this is the first time that it has been shown at popular prices. In Chicago the top price for admission was $1 and similar prices have prevailed throughout the east where this picture has been shown.

Whether one has read the story or not makes no difference as the film story is easily followed and not any of the important action is overlooked. Nero is portrayed in a manner that shows the character of this brutal Roman ruler in all its repulsiveness and the parts of Vitellius, Petronius, Chilo, Lygia, Ursus and Peter, the apostle, are all well taken. The burning of Rome, the Christians at the mercy of the lions in the arena, the gladiatorial contests, and Ursus' struggle with the bull are scenes of extraordinary interest.

Will Build 2 Bungalows.
We have two lots on which we would build two modern bungalows if we could arrange to sell them on easy payments.

OREGON LUMBER YARD. (Adv.)

CONGRESSMAN BRENNER IS DEAD AFTER LONG FIGHT

PROMINENT NEW JERSEY MAN SUCCEUMS TO CANCER IN BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 5.—Congressman Brenner, of New Jersey, who had been receiving treatment for cancer, died today. When he entered the hospital the congressman was told his case was hopeless but he insisted upon being treated and a hundred thousand dollars worth of radium was used in the treatment.

Physicians were astonished at Brenner's vitality. Only his optimism, they said kept him alive recently. Radium was twice buried in the cancer in his shoulder, but Dr. Kelley of John Hopkins hospital, said he was too far gone to cure.

Women Politicians Warned.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Classified federal employees connected with women suffrage organizations were warned that removal would follow political activity in the movement's interests.

Most of the golden opportunities offered you will not stand the acid test.

PERSONAL MENTION

Lem Kent of Baker was at the Bowman last night.

Mrs. Joe Lewis came in this morning from Helix.

A Wade of Enterprise, was visiting in the city yesterday.

Robert Lewis, prominent Echo resident, is in the city today.

J. W. Myrick came in this morning from his ranch north of the city.

Ople Reed, noted author who lectured here last evening, was a guest of the St. George.

M. L. Akers, local foundryman, is in Portland as a witness before the federal grand jury.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hunderman and two daughters have returned from a sojourn in California.

C. H. Carder, representative of "His Master's Voice," is making Pendleton a business visit today.

H. E. Dewitt, J. B. Kennedy and H. J. Schons, all well known local residents, are sojourning at Hot Lake this week.

Elmer Turner, local bottling works proprietor, arrived home this morning from Portland, where he was a witness before the federal grand jury.

I. M. Prather, well known local painter, has returned from Ukiah, where he had been for several months. He will spend the winter here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Robert arrived home this morning from California where they went several weeks ago. Mr. Robert went to receive treatment for his eyes.

Charles Alapach came in from Helix this morning and will take back with him this afternoon his young son who underwent an operation only a week ago for appendicitis. His recovery has been unusually rapid.

Francis Xavier Matthieu, the most picturesque link between the old Oregon of trading posts and canoes and the new Oregon of railroads, steamships and department stores, who died yesterday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Rose Bergovin, at Butteville, was a pioneer of 1842.

He was married to Miss Rose Osent, daughter of Louis Osent, a Hudson's Bay company employee, in 1844. In 1846 he purchased the donation claim which he retained through his life. He went to California after gold in 1849, but was not very successful, and returning, founded the town of Butteville in 1851.

Mr. Matthieu would have been 96 years old April 2.

Mr. Matthieu played a dramatic part in the historic gathering at Champeque. The convention was composed of 102 men, so that it required 52 votes as a majority to decide the political destiny of Oregon, then comprising the present states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

The affirmative decision came on the question put by Joseph Meek: "Who is for a divide?—all in favor of the American flag, follow me!"

The convention, composed of 102 settlers, had met to decide whether to organize an American provisional government, as the Americans wished, leave things as they were, as many of the French-Canadians desired, or establish an independent provisional government in accord with the wishes of the Hudson's Bay company officials.

It began to look as though the gathering would come to naught, because of the triple division of sentiment.

But on Meek's ringing call for positive action 50 men at once declared themselves in favor of the Stars and Stripes.

With the momentous issue hanging in the balance men who might have wished to step over and line up with the 50 hesitated, desiring to make what might prove to be an unpopular move.

But Matthieu had no cause to love Great Britain, and was virtually an exile from Canada, his native land.

A French-Canadian by birth, he had taken part in a rebellion against British rule in 1837-38 when he was but 16 years old.

With Etienne Lucier, also a French-Canadian, he stepped over the line. Oregon was saved to the Union.

Matthieu was born at Terrebonne, a village near Montreal, Canada, April 2, 1818. He had a little schooling in his early youth, and when he was 12 years of age he went to work in a dry goods store in Montreal.

When the rebellion began, he joined it, but on account of his youth was not watched as closely as the others, and was able to render the insurgents valuable service. When the rebellion collapsed his boyish appearance enabled him to escape from the country.

Reaching Albany, N. Y., he went to work as a carpenter, and after 15 months went to Milwaukee. He went to Chicago in 1839.

In 1842 Mr. Matthieu came to Oregon, arriving at Fort Vancouver without shoes or stockings. He soon went to French Prairie, one of the earliest settlements of the Willamette valley.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

When a young widow makes up her mind to marry again the man she spots hasn't the ghost of a show.

OREGON PIONEER LED AN ADVENTUROUS LIFE

FRANCIS MATTHIEU WAS LONG A PICTURESQUE CHARACTER OF THE STATE.

Man Who Saved Oregon to the United States Was a Pioneer of 1842—He Would Have Been 96 Years Old in April Next Had He Lived—Founded the Town of Butteville.

Francis Xavier Matthieu, the most picturesque link between the old Oregon of trading posts and canoes and the new Oregon of railroads, steamships and department stores, who died yesterday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Rose Bergovin, at Butteville, was a pioneer of 1842.

He was married to Miss Rose Osent, daughter of Louis Osent, a Hudson's Bay company employee, in 1844. In 1846 he purchased the donation claim which he retained through his life. He went to California after gold in 1849, but was not very successful, and returning, founded the town of Butteville in 1851.

Mr. Matthieu played a dramatic part in the historic gathering at Champeque. The convention was composed of 102 men, so that it required 52 votes as a majority to decide the political destiny of Oregon, then comprising the present states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

The affirmative decision came on the question put by Joseph Meek: "Who is for a divide?—all in favor of the American flag, follow me!"

The convention, composed of 102 settlers, had met to decide whether to organize an American provisional government, as the Americans wished, leave things as they were, as many of the French-Canadians desired, or establish an independent provisional government in accord with the wishes of the Hudson's Bay company officials.

It began to look as though the gathering would come to naught, because of the triple division of sentiment.

But on Meek's ringing call for positive action 50 men at once declared themselves in favor of the Stars and Stripes.

With the momentous issue hanging in the balance men who might have wished to step over and line up with the 50 hesitated, desiring to make what might prove to be an unpopular move.

But Matthieu had no cause to love Great Britain, and was virtually an exile from Canada, his native land.

A French-Canadian by birth, he had taken part in a rebellion against British rule in 1837-38 when he was but 16 years old.

With Etienne Lucier, also a French-Canadian, he stepped over the line. Oregon was saved to the Union.

Matthieu was born at Terrebonne, a village near Montreal, Canada, April 2, 1818. He had a little schooling in his early youth, and when he was 12 years of age he went to work in a dry goods store in Montreal.

When the rebellion began, he joined it, but on account of his youth was not watched as closely as the others, and was able to render the insurgents valuable service. When the rebellion collapsed his boyish appearance enabled him to escape from the country.

Reaching Albany, N. Y., he went to work as a carpenter, and after 15 months went to Milwaukee. He went to Chicago in 1839.

In 1842 Mr. Matthieu came to Oregon, arriving at Fort Vancouver without shoes or stockings. He soon went to French Prairie, one of the earliest settlements of the Willamette valley.

Boils Biliousness Malaria Constipation

Are You Troubled?

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Perhaps this case may be similar to yours

J. Wesley Tilly of (Box 672,) Selma, Cal., writes:

"Gentlemen:—It gives me much pleasure to be able to send you a testimonial, if by its reaching some of your medicines will do as much for him as they have for me. At the age of fourteen I was troubled with a great deal of malaria and biliousness, accompanied with the worst sort of large boils. I was persuaded by my parents, who have always been strong believers in Dr. Pierce's remedies, to try the Golden Medical Discovery. I took one bottle and the boils all disappeared, but I did not stop at one bottle, I took three and the malaria all left me and I have had no more boils to this day, thanks to the Golden Medical Discovery for my relief."

"Following an operation for appendicitis two years ago I was troubled very much with constipation and I have been trying Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets and they have rid me of the troublesome gas and have aided me in conquering the whole trouble; thanks again for the 'Pellets' and for the advice I have obtained from The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." Send only 10 cents for this 100 page book.

for over forty years has been lending its aid to just such cases as this. In our possession we have thousands of testimonials of like character.

Perhaps you are skeptical, but isn't it worth at least a trial in view of such strong testimony? Isn't it reasonable to suppose that if it has done so much for others it can do as much for you?

Your druggist will supply you in liquid or tablet form, or you can send 50 cent stamps for a trial box. Address Dr. H. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

SEMI-PAID FIRE DEPT. ESTABLISHED BY COUNCIL

(Continued from page one.)

company. That men be selected for the three companies according to where they live and as to their capabilities as firemen.

That they be paid $1 per fire. That if the fire is over one hour's duration they be allowed $1 for every hour or fraction thereof, but in no case over $5 for one fire.

That they be paid 50 cents for each drill and that no drill last over one hour.

That they shall be fined 50 cents for failure to attend drills, and department be fined five dollars for failure to hold department meeting once a month, this amount to be turned into the city treasury.

That unless excused by sickness, sickness in family, or absence from city, members be fined 50c for failure to attend department meetings, this fine to be turned into department treasury to be used as members see fit.

We also recommend that two more paid men be hired at once and suggest the following applicants for these places: (Recommendations not yet decided upon.)

Also that all of the old firemen who have served for three and a half years' continuous service, and have a clean record, be granted exempt certificates. That city furnish them with a nice certificate instead of the cheap handbill which they now issue.

Furthermore, in recognition of past valiant services of our old volunteer firemen, that the council tender them a vote of thanks and a banquet. That all exempt firemen be invited.

JOSEPH ELL, JOHN W. DYER, JOHN L. VAUGHAN, Fire Committee.

HOES AND SHEEP SHIPPED FROM WESTON

(Special Correspondence.)

WESTON, Ore., Feb. 4.—Wm. McKenzie left on Tuesday with two carloads of hogs and sheep which he and Joe Hodgson are shipping to the Portland markets. Although this is among the first carloads of stock that has been shipped from Weston they expect to have a stock yard in a short time which will increase such shipments.

Mrs. John McRae is convalescent after a week's illness with la grippe. Chas. Price of this city, made a business trip to the county seat during the latter part of the previous week.

Mrs. John Prime accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Cora McDuff, came down from Orville, Washington, Saturday and is now confined to her bed on account of very serious illness.

Rev. N. D. Wood, pastor of the local Methodist church, went to Wingville, Oregon, Sunday, to conduct a series of meetings at that place during the coming week.

Miss Alice Barnes, teacher on Weston mountain, came down Friday to spend the week-end with her parents in the city and is unable to return on account of measles in the family. John R. English is substituting at the present.

Mrs. Wm. MacKenzie left this morning for Portland where she will visit her children, who are attending business college in that place. Miss Bessie Key of Athena, is keeping house during her absence.

O. M. Richmond of the Garden City, was a Weston visitor during the week.

Mrs. H. E. Turner went down to Pendleton during the week to receive medical treatment.

Miss Sylvia Beattie, clerk in the McGrover Mercantile store of Athena, spent Sunday at the home of her brother, Mr. Harry Beattie, in Weston.

Earl King of Athena, was a Weston visitor Sunday.

Miss Mina Price is once more able to attend school after a month's illness.

Albert Nor Dean of Athena, spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Nor Dean, in Weston.

Mrs. L. Winn is spending this week with her son, Henry Winn, at Touchet.

Rev. A. L. Graham and J. E. Shanberger, who have been in Weston for the past two weeks, have returned to their respective homes at Payette and Fruitland, Idaho.

Consider Wickersham Alaska Bill WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Actual consideration of the Wickersham Alaska railroad bill was to begin today. House leaders today expressed themselves as confident that when the vote is counted, the government-owned railroad will be favored, despite the denunciation of Chairman Ellis of the public lands commission and others, that the Guggenheim interests favored rather than opposed the government railroad to develop their vast properties, and that the bill was a "grab, fostered by the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, and the Northwestern Commercial bodies." It was declared today that he bill will be passed February 11 or 19, according to the present plans.